Caramel, a café/restaurant located at Cypress Garden in Budaiya, has undergone a makeover since it reopened last December.

For starters, new owners Maryam Nass and Dalia Kanoo opted for a modern look that's also distinctly French. The décor and ornaments, in fact, were sourced all the way from France, that's why Caramel has the look and feel of a modern French café.

Whether you are alone or in the company of your family and friends, Caramel is a great place to have a delicious meal that you can enjoy in its inside and outside dining areas. All you have to do is follow the dictates of your taste buds and you're in for a tasty surprise.

Caramel offers a wide range of crêpes, viennoiserie and breads made only from high quality ingredients available in Bahrain. On a recent visit, I found the sandwiches equally scrumptious and I advise you to try them when you check out the café or when you're thinking of hosting a party as Caramel also does catering.

The gastronomic possibilities are endless at Caramel. If you are not very hungry, you can try small bites of croissants, bruschettas and cheese and garlic bread. For the health conscious, there's an impressive selection of salads and nutritious smoothies. All-time favorite sandwiches and pasta dishes can likewise be ordered.

And who can ever resist a helping of sweets? Desserts, coolies and milkshakes abound. Just forget about your diet.

Don't worry about your kids getting restless, Caramel has something special for them as well. ■
