

Glance At Presidents For '60-'61

Dave Alexander, a junior, will lead off the list of presidents for next year at Lincoln High. Dave will lead the activities of Student Council during the 1960-'61 year. He was previously a member of the council as class president his freshman year and as class representative his junior year. He has lettered twice in cross-country, once in wrestling, and has participated in track and basketball. He was one of the honored juniors to be recently initiated into National Honor Society.

Steve Schreiber, was chosen by the juniors to head next year's senior class. Steve has participated in tennis and basketball. He was a member of the cast for the operetta his sophomore and junior years. And he is now a member of the National Honor Society.

Julian Beaver, next year's junior class president, came to Lincoln from the New Holland grade school. His name appears consistently on the Honor Roll. Julian's favorite sport is tennis, in which he has participated during the first two years of his high school career. He was also a member of the debate team this year.

Heading the sophomore class will be Gary Hodgdon. His name also, is a familiar one on the Honor Roll. Gary was a member of the Freshman football and basketball teams.

Virginia Lansford will be in charge of the Future Teachers of America next year. She is a four-year member of the club and served as Historian during her Sophomore year. Virginia was recently elected into the National Honor Society.

SHOWN ABOVE are three of the students who will be "running" various organizations and offices next year. Julian Beaver will head the junior class; Carole McGeath will lead the Junior Woman's Club; Gary Hodgdon will head the sophomore class. Absent at the time that the picture was taken were presidents of Student Council, Dave Alexander; Thespians, Carolyn Yeates; Future Teachers of America, Virginia Lansford; and the senior class, Steve Schreiber.

Thespians president for the coming year will be Carolyn Yeates. Carolyn's dramatic experience includes both acting and serious readings. During her sophomore year, she appeared in For Love of a House, a one-act drama, and during her junior year, she played the lead in The Glass Menagerie, the annual play. Her serious reading at contest in her freshman year was Anastasia, for which she received a third in district. Her sophomore year, Carolyn won second in sectional with Saint Joan.

With All My Sons, Miss Yeates placed second in state this year. Carolyn has been a Thespians since her sophomore year. She maintains a 4.9 grade average and ranks first in her class; she also is a newly elected member of the National Honor Society.

The Lincoln Junior Woman's Club president - elect is Miss Carol McGeath. She will relieve Rhoda Holland of her presidential duties during the summer, when the Board and activities of the coming year will be planned. Carol has actively participated in Woman's Club, since her sophomore year. While a junior,
