

Honor Seniors at Annual Honors Day Program

Class and Honors Day at Lincoln High School was held Friday, May 20 at 1:30 p. m. in the high school auditorium. Twenty-six graduating seniors and two members of the school staff were honored.

Mr. Jack Hodgson presented to home economics teacher, Corinne Houston, and janitor Russell Rankin awards for 25 years of service.

For four years of perfect attendance, Mr. Hodgson presented the awards to Koert Bartman, Jeff Frantz, Jean Goldhammer, and Dan Bock.

Coach Paul Johnson presented the athletics award to Robert Goebel, while Mr. Donald Youngin gave Dan Bock the agriculture award.

Next, Mr. Harold Mason presented the commercial subjects awards. The winners were Margaret Buchanan, bookkeeping; Diane Caplinger, shorthand; and Karen Allen, typing.

Judy Lorenz and Shirley Stefens, as editors of the yearbook, Lincolnite, and school newspaper, the Railsplitter, were presented the journalism awards for their positions.

Ronald Musiek took top honors by receiving five awards. Miss Dorothy Sharp presented him the English award while Miss Jean Joos presented him two mathematics awards, and Mr. Harold Luechow awarded him the two science honors.

Receiving the homemaking award was Donna Stefens, and taking the industrial arts award was Allen Hoffert.

In the music department, John Mallinson took the band award, and Joe Webb took the vocal music award. Joe also received the speech award and the American Legion award.

Likewise in the speech department, Elizabeth Stringer received the dramatics award, while Steve Miller won the debate award. The "Larry Thomas Memorial" went to the negative team of J. D. Aeltis and Larry Peek.

Rhoda Holland received the language award and the DAR award.

In the History department Roger Gehlbach and Ione Irish took the social studies and DAR History Award, respectively.

PRESIDENT TALKS

Following the playing of Pomp and Circumstance as the processional, Jeff Frantz, class president, gave the welcome for the Honors Day program. David Walter, music director, sang a solo, and Walter Fester, offered impression to the graduating class.

A brief memorial service was given in honor of the late Mr. Jack Bass. A plaque was presented in his honor. The plaque will bear the names of the last six editors of the yearbook, and the next four will also be inscribed. This year's annual is being dedicated to Mr. Bass.

HOLD BACCALAUREATE

Baccalaureate services were held Sunday, May 22, at 4 p.m. in the high school auditorium. The processional was played by Carol Maxey and Judy Sablotny, and Rev. John Webb of Lincoln Bible Institute offered the invocation.

The A Cappella Choir, under the direction of Mr. David Walter, sang two selections. Following this the Rev. Elmer Osterbur of Immanuel Lutheran Church read the scripture.

Senior Class Wills—

I, Judy Hoover, do hereby bequeath my laugh to Gail George, who actually doesn't need it.

I, Judith Heinzel, will my ponytail (the real one and also my false one) to Nancy Tague; my fluent Spanish to Doug Goebel; and my great driving ability to Jerry Gordon.

I, Mike Smith, will my motorcycle boots and my combat fatigues to Miss Sterchi.

I, Jan Elkins, being forced at gunpoint and being of terrified mind and loss of memory, do hereby bequeath Bob Goebel to Evan Dehner in hopes that they will take the gun away from my head.

I, Ann Hauffe, being of unsound mind, as usual, bequeath my artistic talents to Miss McCarthy, my superb acting ability to Mr. Kautz, my difficult theme on the Marmons to Miss Sharp, and all my problems to Mr. Hough, maybe they can do more with them than I did.
