

BLISSED OUT - a comic collection by Laura Sink (whose work has been featured in MICROMAG). Her drawing style fits somewhere in between Dennis Eichom and Kim Dietch, her subject matter draws from her own life, "Jersey Girl Goes to Manhattan", "Nova"; 'true' stories; weird, obscure ghost tales "The V&pa" is the first of what is plan: to be a continuing series; & the just plain surreal, "Girl Trouble", "My Dream Diary". Since the conference, Laura moved back to the East Coast - I assume her mail is being forwarded (hell, I'm still getting forwarded mail after air a year), so sent any queries or stories (her request!) to the following address - I'm sure she'll eventually get it. I'll her new address in the next issue. $2 Laura Sink, P.6. Box 1751 Lawrence, KS 66044-8851

KISSYPOO - a "work in progress" comic by Craig Thompson - this was a 'special sneak preview' that he had with him. I can't begin to describe this; somewhat autobiographical, extremely surreal & dream-like, very whimsical - in short, nothing whatsoever to appeal to the Fanboy mind set - I appreciate that! Another nice discovery (though I have no idea what the name means...) Craig Thompson, 1973 N Oakland Ave Milwaukee, WI 53202
