

TIJUANA

HIT SQUAD

the third album from

DEADBOLT

"the scariest band in the world"

The third album by the self-proclaimed "scariest band in the world." Their previous albums, "Shrunken Head" & "Tiki-Man" mined what was described as "Voodoobilly". This time, they decided to go from the swamp down to Aztlan, having watched Bring Me The Head Of Alfredo Garcia and Reservoir Dogs once too many times - the result is either a shrewd commentary on the universe that Peckinpah & Tarantino have established; songs like the title track, 'A Hit Gone Wrong', 'Convict Man', 'Prison Shank', 'The Day I Got My Spine Back', and my personal favorite, 'Devil Took Mrs. Jenkins To Hell' seem to support that - or it could be just straight-ahead rock n' roll with too much tequila, too many cigarettes, lots of mindless violence by mean gringos & only one redeeming moral: 'Always clean your guns.'

HARLEY DAVIDSON GUITAR, VOCALS AND C:
LES VEGAS DRUMS AND VOCALS
R.A. MACLEAN VOCALS
3RD DEGREE BURNS BASS & VOCALS
MOOSE CUTLER BASS
MARK DAVIDSON ADDITIONAL DRUMS
COF FIN BOY ADDITIONAL VOCAL

Not for the faint hearted, easily offended or humor-impaired.
If there's a movie to this, I wanna see it.

