Note the additions: We left out a plan for Feb. 22, and I left out the following week altogether. If you're okay with use doing another assisted mobile lab try-out, this gives us time for that, which may be good. Nicole can always have an extra mobile lab time April 5th. I made the last February time a Tuesday slot (even though all the other February times are Wednesday, because Tuesdays are better for Andy than Wednesdays, right?)
