Reference for Sandor Bercesenyi

Sandor Bercesenyi completed a large, highly confidential and urgent project for thebigword in 2001. This consisted of translation into Hungarian of approximately 12,000 words, to be completed within extremely tight deadlines. Mr Bercesenyi was extremely professional, punctual, and pleasant to work with, and the client was very happy with the quality of the work provided. His technical skills were also of a good standard, as the file formats were not straightforward. His reliability was essential for this project and he met all deadlines without any problems. The highly confidential nature of the project was respected fully by Mr Bercesenyi.
