

OBJECTIVE: Seeking a career opportunity in banking, finance and/or consulting with a US based organization under the auspices of the Fulbright academic training.

EDUCATION

- Masters of Arts in Economics (MA), The University of Arizona, Tucson, Arizona, USA . Graduated on August 2006. Finance GPA= 4.0.
- Monash University, Clayton, Victoria, Australia. Non GPA system (graduated in the top 15% of the starting 1986 class for the Bachelor of Economics)
 - Bachelor of Economics 1990;
 - Honours Degree of the Bachelor of Economics (Econometrics), 1991

QUANTITATIVE/ANALYTICAL SKILLS

- Received tertiary training in economics and quantitative methods including operations research, econometrics/statistical analysis and modeling.
- Continuity from the undergraduate to graduate levels ensured exposure to the latest theoretical/quantitative techniques in economics and finance.
 - SAMPLING OF MOST RECENT COURSES (M.A. in Economics): Applied Economics Analysis 508 (A grade), Investment Analysis 521 (A), Finance Markets & Corporate Finance 620 (A).

OTHER SKILLS

- Strong computer skills, including a knowledge of programming languages.
- Ability to adapt to new environments, self motivated/results driven and able to work as a team, plus demonstrated supervisory, communication skills and ability to work with senior managers.
- More than 10 years of substantial management experience, including financial management and program development responsibilities.
- Good analytical and problem solving skills.

AWARDS

- Fulbright & university merit scholarships:USD35,000 (Aug 2004 to Aug 2006)
- Australian Foreign Aid Scholarship & University assistantship: AUD25,000 (Feb 1986 to Dec 1990) & 30% self supporting through Monash University while working 15 hours per week.

EXPERIENCE

2002/2004 Economics Lecturer, Curtin University of Technology Australian, Programs (Full-time). & Economics Tutor, The Open University, Malaysia (part-time)

- To develop, organize and conduct courses as required by the College.
- To assist the college in the supervision and administration of students and student activities. To assist students in an advisory capacity.
- To remain abreast of development in the academic discipline.

2001/2002 Sales Manager, Kong Ming Trading, Malaysia (Securities Firm)

1999/2001 Paid Dealer's Representative, TA Securities, Malaysia (Stock-broking)

Relationship management and credit management/marketing (1991 to 1999)

1997/1999 Senior Manager, Corporate Banking, Deutsche Bank, Malaysia
(wholly owned by Deutsche Bank AG, Germany)

1994/1997 Assistant Manager, Corporate Banking, United Overseas Bank

1991/1994 Treasury and Credit Officer, Southern Bank, Malaysia

- Career highlights: 1999 Deutsche Bank Outstanding Award and Special Mention.
- To improve portfolio profitability and returns of clients' relationships through quality service maintenance of regular contacts (at all levels) and to open dialogue to better understand client's business and to explore proactive opportunities.
- To streamline portfolio to further enhance accounts portfolio.
- To construct, manage and trade in fixed income & corporate FX portfolios

1989/1990 Econometrics Research Assistant, Monash University, Australia

AFFILIATIONS

- Fulbright Malaysia-USA Exchange Program (funded by the US Department of State)
- Member: Malaysian Economic Association, University Malaya, Malaysia.
- Monash University Alumni Association, Australia

REFEREE: Dr Donald McCloud, Executive Director, Malaysian-American Commission on Educational Exchange (regarding my Fulbright award). Tel: 603-21668878.