

Constructivism Poster

This poster is meant to be a flier for an art gallery. The goal was to create a poster for a gallery, displaying contemporary pieces that were inspired by a previous modern art movement. I chose the Constructivist movement and used modern Constructivist pieces to display on the flier, as well as making the poster, itself, look like a piece from the Constructivism era.

