

Hard Copies Are Available For The Following:

The Nanny: “All Is Fine In Love and War”

“A” Story: Nanny Fran Fine, Niles and the kids join forces for a battle royale when nemesis C.C. moves in.

“B” Story: Max struggles with the news that C.C. may be pregnant with his baby.

The Nanny: “All’s Fine That Ends Fine”

“A” Story: Fran gladly takes advantage of a sprained ankle and everyone around her until her temporary replacement proves to be Mary Poppins incarnate.

“B” Story: Sylvia tries to persuade Fran to move back home.

Murphy Brown: “Easy Money”

“A” Story: Murphy helps Frank get his job back after he’s found moonlighting in some very odd positions.

“B” Story: Jim rallies Miles and Corky to demand pay raises under threat of strike.

Murphy Brown: “Murphy’s War”

“A” Story: Murphy and Corky take their gloves off and a whole lot more to fight discrimination at an exclusive all-male social club.

“B” Story: Miles, Frank and Jim struggle to justify their support and membership at the all-male club.

Murphy Brown: “Keeping Up With The Jenny Joneses”

“A” Story: When a network executive demands a increasingly more salacious approach to news reporting Murphy concocts a plan to stop him.

“B” Story: Miles reveals himself as a network brown noser and sycophant extraordinaire.

Dear John: “Monte Carlo Migraine”

“A” Story: John’s plan for a casino night to raise money for the Rego Park Community Center nearly works – until Kurk hits big and decides he wants to keep all of his winnings.

“B” Story: Kate, Ralph, Louise, Marybeth and John band together to teach Kurk a lesson in humility and charity.

Dear John: “Swept Away”

“A” Story: When a local news reporter decides to make fools out of the One-Two-One Group for a sweeps stunt John exposes her true motives and exacts a plan of revenge.

“B” Story: Kurk proposes marriage to the reporter with surprising results.

Bob: “Don’t Raise The Premium, Lower Your Drawers”

“A” Story: When his urine test for a new insurance carrier comes back dirty Bob finds himself doing a whole lot of explaining to everyone.

“B” Story: Kay and Trisha make tentative plans for an intervention.

Love and War: “Tangled Webs”

“A” Story: Jack tries to help Dana and his love life by printing a generous review in his column and achieves a few unintended results.

“B” Story: Nadine lies to her former friends and tells them she owns the Blue Shamrock.

Married With Children: “The Inlaws” (Pilot for Spinoff)

“A” Story: The apple doesn’t fall far from the tree as Peg’s parents visit and we see an older but mirror image of her and Al in their bickering sunset years.

“B” Story: A snobby restaurant staff proves no match for the Bundy’s squared.

The Golden Girls: “Real Genius”

“A” Story: When an IQ test reveals that Rose is a genius Dorothy and Blanche struggle to accept her newfound confidence while Sophia maintains, with a steady stream of pointed barbs, she’s still the same old idiot.

“B” Story: Sophia tries to perfect a centuries old family recipe for tomato sauce using some curious combinations of ingredients and the girls as guinea pigs.

The Golden Girls: “The Hot Rock”

“A” Story: As the girls look for the rightful owner of an expensive ring they find it has more curses than the Hope Diamond.

“B” Story: Blanche finds that swearing off men is easier said than done.

The Golden Girls: “The Diary”

“A” Story: When the girls sneak a peak at Rose’s diary and discover she’s thinking of moving out they decide to abandon their sarcastic ways and be nicer to her – and find old habits die hard.

“B” Story: Rose’s endless stories about St. Olaf push the girl’s patience to the brink.