

FOURSOME
(romantic comedy)

The Sugar Bush Golf Academy's luxe links provide a scenic backdrop for this classic Cinderella story of a poor girl falling for a rich, handsome "prince." But this particular prince happens to already have a girlfriend and she's a sadistic, conniving BITCH!

The story begins when our poor Cinderella, Cindy, arrives at the exclusive summer golf camp chock full of cautious optimism courtesy of a work-study program and indefatigable youth. But the recent death of her father has left her somewhat fragile and significantly added to the usual teenage angst and insecurity one might expect to encounter. Then she meets Charlie, the proverbial handsome prince on a white horse -- or in this case a white Mercedes SL55 AMG convertible. It is love at first sight for both of them. Unfortunately though, between Charlie's unwillingness to stand up to his mean and controlling girlfriend Mandy and her snobby, sycophantic friends and Cindy's inability to stand up for herself things look rather doomed from the start. Then "Foursome" happens.

"Foursome" is golf's ultimate double-entendre: a secret tournament at the academy where the winner's prize is a sex foursome of his/her choosing from the pool of participating golfers. It also happens to be the weapon of choice for our uber bitch to permanently eliminate our modern day virginal Cinderella. And when Mandy cheats her way to the winner's circle so she can set Cindy up in a "foursome" hopes for true love seem to dim very quickly indeed. After all, what prince would want to date the camp whore?

Fortunately, kids do grow up quickly these days and thanks to a kind, mysterious godfather and a bag full of magic golf clubs, some intestinal fortitude and the power of love this Cinderella comes of age, gets her prince AND gets her revenge ... all in 90 fun-filled minutes!
