

Aloha from aXis!

This summer has been an incredible testimony of God's faithfulness in the lives of our students, leaders, & staff. I have personally been very challenged & am so thankful that God desires to keep pruning me as a part of His Kingdom. Here is a quick update on what the Lord has been doing here in Asheville & an update on my Journeyman process.

Praising God, Megan

To the right is our aXis summer project 2007! They have been an outstanding group of sophomores, juniors, seniors, & graduates. For some it has been their first time to share their testimony, share the gospel, or lead someone to Christ!

God is moving through this incredible group of disciples. Continue to pray for them as they head back to their campuses in the fall to set out to reach the lost, disciple others, & serve through their local campus ministry.

We have eight folks from HSU here at aXis.

Summer 2007

To the left are my partners in aXis this summer. L-R: Kyle from Conway, Luke from Russellville, Neal from HSU, Mark from Russellville, & mio. This is our aXis staff. Kyle, Neal, & Mark serve as the Project Directors, while Luke & I serve as the Team Leaders. The three PD's have joined us throughout the summer, while Luke & I have held down the aXis front the entire summer. It has been personally a great challenge in serving as Christ served & leading as Christ led his disciples. I am privileged to serve alongside such a great crew & praise God for the challenges He has faced me with this summer. I feel like God has grown me by leaps & bounds for sure. Thank you for your faithfulness through prayers & support to allow me to serve via aXis.

To the left is our group praying over Mark at one of our Large Group worship & teaching times. Mark, his wife, & two kids are headed to Southeast Asia to serve with the International Mission Board as long-term missionaries. This summer has definitely been an opportunity for the students to learn more about God's purposes & how they can play a part in God's global vision. Praying is just one of the five habits we have learned about in serving God as World Christians. Sending, Going, Mobilizing, & Welcoming are the others habits we have learned.

I received official word from the International Mission Board that I have been invited to the August conference. This is an answer to prayer & releases a whole new set of requests in discerning where the Lord desires for me to serve for the 2 year program. I am narrowing the search down to North Africa, Middle East, & India. The conference is August 1-3. Please pray with me during this time.

Well, I am headed back to HSU in the fall & will be joining my fabulous roommate, Jessica (pictured here), and a new roommate, Lesley. I am excited to have this next semester back in Arkadelphia to serve via my church, the BCM, & with my friends. I am praying that our new place will be one of hospitality & love. God has blessed me with great family & friends indeed.
