

Ancestors in the Mercier/Robideau family who were FILLES DU ROI,

And their line to JOHN EMMET MERCIER, with notes from the author of this list, Andre Therriault:

These women, known in French as the "fille du roi", agreed to travel to the new settlements in North America and marry a settler there in exchange for a 50 pound dowry from the French King. Of the nearly 1000 women who undertook the journey, about 800 made it to Canada. They made contracts of marriage with the men who had originally settled the New World and usually married within a few days or weeks of the contract signing. Often the women broke the contracts, only to remake them or make new contracts with other men.

SECTION TWO- The following is a list of women that "had second thoughts." That is, they contracted marriage with one or more men prior to their actual marriage. I am only going to list here the final marriage for each woman.

THE KING'S DAUGHTERS

This file is a compilation of lists detailing the NAME, MARRIAGE DATE/PLACE, and HUSBAND(S) of each of the women known as the "King's Daughters". The lists that I used as reference were originally compiled by Elmer Courteau and Joy Reisinger.

These women, known in French as the "fille du roi", agreed to travel to the new settlements in North America and marry a settler there in exchange for a 50 pound dowry from the French King. Of the nearly 1000 women who undertook the journey, about 800 made it to Canada.

They made contracts of marriage with the men who had originally settled the New World and usually married within a few days or weeks of the contract signing. Often the women broke the contracts, only to remake them or make new contracts with other men.

What I have attempted to do here, for the convenience of those seeking a list of the women who may be their ancestors, is to give the basic information related to the marriage of each woman. I have included only the name, date and place of the contract or marriage, and the name of the husband. When only the contract is listed, I give only "DATE(cont)". My original intent was to list the parents and origin of each woman, but it was strongly suggested by Roland Roy that I limit the information to what is listed here. The other details can be found in sources such as JETTE's "Dictionnaire Genealogique des Familles du Quebec". Given the scope of this (ambitious!!) project and my limited ability to type, I am more than grateful to Roland for his advice! I have categorized the lists as my reference did:

Section One: Women from upper class families.

Section Two: Women who annulled marriage contracts

(Here and throughout all of the lists, in the interest of family lines, I only included the actual marriage of the girls rather than list unfulfilled contracts that never produced any of us.)

Section Three: Women from Ile-de-France.

Section Four: Women from Normandy

Section Five: Women of unknown origin

Section Six: Woman from other places in France

In some cases, I could not help but include some of the more interesting historical notes. Unfortunately, most of these notes are of a negative nature - dealing with death, prostitution, or adultery - but never-the-less, "VERY INTERESTING"!! In many cases, the girls married soldiers of the famous Carignan Regiment. I have tried to indicate that fact in each case.

I have tried with the utmost of my ability to avoid (correct) any mistakes in transcription, spelling, etc. Any mistakes you find will probably be those I missed. I apologize now for those that slipped by me. But I will also take the liberty of POUTING now and say, "it's better than no list at all!"

So - From me to all of you other FC descendents - ENJOY and LEARN.

THE KING'S DAUGHTERS

SECTION ONE- This first list contains those women believed to be born to upper class families.

Mme. BOYER returned to France, possibly to claim her inheritance, and returned pregnant in 1676. The daughter was baptized 14 Jan 1677 at Que. She accused Madard CHOUART, Sieur DES GROSEILLIERS, the companion of Pierre-Esprit RADISSON, of being the father. He admitted having relations with her but denied that he was the father. He also claimed that she had been seen with several men in LaRochelle, France. He was ordered to pay 200 pounds damages and she was returned to her husband. She died sometime after 28 Jul 1710.
