Those who need quick success, should chop wood.
— Albert Einstein

The other road does lead to the upper logging camps. It goes only a little way from the ranch house, and it comes to a riviere. Long time ago, this road did have a longing to go across the riviere. Some wise people did have understandings, and they did build it a bridge to go across on. It went across the bridge, and it goes on and on between the hills. The hills where dwell the talking fir trees.

— Opal Whitely

He who goes astray within himself does not have such a large territory in which to move; he soon perceives that it is a circle from which he cannot find an exit.
— Soren Kierkegaard
