MASS HELD FOR AMERICAN COL. DEWEY

Saigon broadcasts an item in Annamite, of which the following is a summary: Yesterday (Nov. 5) mass was held in the Protestant Church at Boulevard Norodom in Saigon for the late American Col. Dewey assassinated on Sept. 27. His body has not yet been discovered. Many representatives of the British, American, and French Governments were present at mass. The Chinese of Saigon and Cholon presented white flags bearing Chinese characters for condolences for the late Col. Dewey.
