THE NEWSLETTER OF

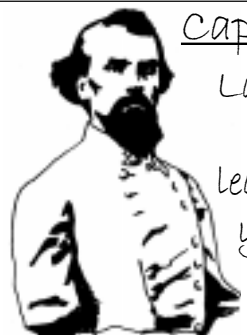

10TH GEORGIA VOLUNTEER INFANTRY REGIMENT

Commander's Corner: Member's of the Tenth,

By the time you receive this, Jonesboro will have come and gone. Our first reenactment this season was Andersonville (due to Tunnel Hill cancellation). We fielded a company of over 30 rifles plus 4 or 5 men from other units. The battle on Saturday was one of the best ones ever for this event. I should know I was the first casualty on the field and had a good view of the action. Thank you Men of the Tenth Georgia! My thanks to Mike Smith for getting our newsletter up and running again. As many of you know it is almost impossible to recover data when your computer crashes. On that note if you fail to get a newsletter or are unsure of an event please call me (478 922-4777). Reminder: Please continue to acquire the proper Yankee uniform.

Major Steve Black

Captain's Report:

Ladies and Gentleman of the Tenth,

Andersonville was a good time. Thanks to all of you who participated. We learned a new order there and will continue our training at Jonesboro. I thank you for your time and as I say, I will not hold you in ranks longer than necessary. At Jonesboro, we will work on "Company on the right by files into the line." A good maneuver that keeps us from having to always counter march. Thanks for your time and support.

Please remember our 10th Ga. Family over seas or deployed. I know of Jonathan Franklin. If you know of others, send them and their addresses to Mike Smith, and let's as a unit, write to, and support these men or women.

Your Obedient Servant,
Captain James McKenzie

Adjutant's Report:

Member's of the Tenth,

Summer is over and the fall season has begun. Andersonville was a pretty good event and we had 41 members present. There is one new member to report which brings our unit strength to 81. He is:

Cliff Peterman
246 N. Steel Bridges Rd.
Eatonton, GA 31024 (706) 484-0229

The board of directors met on Saturday (October 6). Present were Mike Hamlin, Steve Black, Carl Dixon and myself. It was decided that the election for the unit's field officers will be held at Clinton on Saturday; May 4, 2002, immediately after colors. It was also decided that our unit will keep the present field officer positions. In order to be eligible to vote, a member (1) has to have been a member for at least six months, (2) attended four events during the previous twelve months (at least two of which must be battle reenactments, and (3) dues must be paid by February 28, 2002. Unit dues are $20.00. Please make checks payable to The 10th Georgia Infantry. I hope to see everyone at Jonesboro.

Adjutant/First Sergeant,
Bert Franklin

Ladies Corner:

Ladies of the Tenth,

It was wonderful to see everyone at Andersonville. We had a great show of ladies, hope to continue to see this kind of support. Our Christmas dinner is December 8th, same location. We need to get together and have some help with turkeys and ham. I will fix the dressing and gravy again this year. Call me if you can help with this dinner. Everyone else needs to remember your covered dishes. (478)-935-3571.

I would also like to ask that everyone be aware of the efforts that are being made to send little Jack Wilbanks to Poland in a little over a year for some treatment that will help him. Raffles at each event are being held. I will also have one at this years Christmas dinner. Everyone save your dollars and help support this effort.

Cathy Lebrescu would like to inform everyone that we have been invited to be a part of the Christmas Parade in Bollinbroke. Anyone interested please call Sue Millwood or Cathy Lebrescu. This will be the first weekend in December in the afternoon. Also, anyone interested in getting into the Christmas Parade in Warner Robins, Please call Cathy Lebrescu. She must know before the end of October.

May God continue to Bless us all,

Deidre McKenzie

ORDER OF BATTLE

Jonesborough, Georgia-October 12-14: - Always a good event. Period Ball.

Indian Springs, Georgia-October 26-28: - Come camp and enjoy the haunted path on Saturday night. This is an excellent Halloween experience for the kids and young at heart.

Conyers, Georgia-November 2-4: - Battle of Atlanta. Some of us may go on a day trip Saturday. There is a registration fee, I will have more info after Jonesboro. If you are interested, call me.

Tallasse, Alabama-November 9-11: - This is the fourth year for this event. Several of us went last year and had a great time. It's this side of Montgomery, about 3 hours from Warner Robins and Atlanta. Saturday night ball (5th Alabama Regimental Band). $5.00 fee (16 yrs. old+).

DIRECTIONS: In Alabama take I-85 South to Talassee exit 26. Turn right on Highway 229 North. Go 6 miles to county road 4 and turn left, bear left after turn and go 1 mile to event site.

Milan, Georgia-November 30-December 2: - Battle of Buckhead Church

Indian Springs - December 8: Christmas Party. Meet at the pavilion by the lake. Open at 10:00am, bring a covered dish and we will eat at 12:30pm. We need some volunteers to cook the turkeys and hams. Also we need some volunteers to make dressing as their "covered dish".

NOTE: If any member knows of an event that he wants to place in this newsletter please contact me (Steve) so I can confirm the correct dates and other information necessary to pre-register this unit.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Please pass along prayers and well wishes to all in the tenth who have friends or family engaged in the current military action. Anyone who has an e-mail address for that loved one and would like others to pass along prayers to that person please let me know and I will post the addresses in the newsletter. They need our encouragment and prayers.

Also: To open and view the newsletter sent in e-mail you must have at least Adobe Acrobat 4.0, if you do not have this or the newest version go to the following web address: www.adobe.com/products/acrobat/readstep.html, and download it and install on your system.
