Case No. 99-10121 GHK (PLA)
DECLARATION OF MICHAEL R.
MITCHELL IN SUPPORT OF PLAINTIFF'S MOTION FOR
PARTIAL SUMMARY
JUDGMENT; MOTION TO MODIFY INJUNCTION
DATE: May 15, 2006
TIME: 9:30 am
PLACE: Ctroom Hon. George H.
King, 650 Roybal Bldg., 225 E.
Temple St., Los Angeles, CA

21 I, the undersigned, if called as a witness would testify to the following facts 22 upon my personal knowledge.

23 My name is Michael R. Mitchell. I am an attorney duly licensed to practice law
24 in the State of California and in this United States District Court. I am not 25 representing any party in this action in this court. I have assisted the plaintiff in 26 various aspects of this action and have represented her in the Ninth Circuit Court of 27 Appeals in this action.
28

1 I have a BA and MA degree in mathematics and I have been practicing civil 2 rights law in the Central District of California for more than 30 years. I am 3 competent to make the statements set forth below.

4 In or about 1996, I made a California Public Record Acts request on the County
5 of Los Angeles for settlement agreements in civil rights actions against the Count
6 and/or its employees, including cases involving assault and battery by a peace officer, 7 civil rights, false arrest and false imprisonment. The County produced records for the 8 years 1993, 1994, and 1995. I have supplied these documents to the attorneys for 9 the defendants – to wit, Deputy LA County Counsel Lauren Black, – in this case who 10 represented to me that she has copied them.

11 In the instant case, Deputy LA County Counsel Lauren Black presented me and 12 my assistant, law student Guillermo Arevalo-Farias, with what she represented to me
13 were original documents reflecting all settlements of all lawsuits between mid-1998
14 and mid-2005 against the County. Myself and and Mr. Arevalo-Farias spent two days
15 culling out from these settlement documents those which appear to involve cases
16 claiming violations of civil rights, assault and battery by a peace officer, false arrest 17 and false imprisonment. Mr. Arevalo-Farias and I tagged those documents for 18 copying. The County copied those documents and delivered one set of copies to me.
19 I paid to have the documents copied.

20 The documents consisted of case-specific stapled sets of Office of County
21 Counsel, Fiscal Services Section Payment Vouchers which reflected Payees Name and 22 Payment Amount, Judgment & Settlement Memorandum requesting issuance of a 23 check made payable to specific persons/entities, Judgment and Settlement Information
24 sheets specifying court, court settlement, claim judgment settlement, as well as case
25 type, often requests from outside counsel for disbursement of settlement funds,
26 Reports of Actions Taken by the Board of Supervisors During Closed Sessions, emails
27 regarding provisions of funds by wire transfer or otherwise; and occasionally wire 28

1 funds transfer authorizations. Most of the documents were accompanied by 2 evaluations of the cases by County Counsel setting forth facts about the cases,
3 evaluations of witnesses, expectations of awards (including amounts for statutory 4 attorney's fees) and recommendations for settlement amounts. My best estimate is 5 that each settlement was commemorated by an average of five sheets of paper. There
6 was a total of approximately 789 settlements. Thus there are approximately 3945
7 sheets of paper which fill about 5 storage boxes. These writings are so voluminous
8 that they cannot be conveniently examined by the court. Accordingly, I have prepared 9 tables summarizing the contents of the documents for admission under F.R.E. 1006.
10 Of course, plaintiff will produce the actual documents to the Court if so ordered.

11 I have spent more than 100 hours reviewing the County settlement
12 documentation for the 10-year period described above. These include settlements 13 which occurred pretrial, after arbitration, during trial, after trial, and after appeal.
14 They do not include cases which were dismissed sua sponte for various reasons nor do
15 they include all cases dismissed upon County motions to dismiss or for summary or 16 other judgments in favor of the County.

17 For each year I made tables showing (Col. 1): the date of the Payment Voucher,
18 (Col. 2): the name of the attorney, (Col. 3): the title of the case, (Col. 4): the case
19 number, (Col. 5) a column entitled "Dept" that may be ignored, and columns for 20 claims made: (Col. 6): assault and battery, (Col. 7): civil rights, (Col. 8): false arrest,
21 (Col. 9): false imprisonment, (Col. 10): amount of Payment Voucher, and (Col. 11)
22 that may be ignored. At the end of each year, I noted cases which had gone to trial or 23 verdict and noted those which resulted in an attorney fee application or award. The 24 tables for the ten years of settlements is attached hereto, marked pages 6 through 73, 25 and incorporated herein by reference.

26 A table summarizing pretrial settlements is attached hereto, marked page 74, 27 and incorporated herein by reference. A table summarizing posttrial and other

28

1 settlements is attached hereto, marked pages 75 through 78, and incorporated herein
2 by reference.

3 ALL COUNTY CIVIL RIGHTS SETTLEMENTS
4 FOR THE TEN-YEAR PERIOD

5 The tables show that the County settled approximately 789 civil rights cases
6 over this ten-year period for $58,717,547.91. Of these, 748 (or 95%) were settled
7 prior to trial. In none of these cases settled prior to trial is there any evidence that 8 there was an application, much less an award of, statutory attorney’s fee. In other 9 words, they were “lump sum, including all attorney’s fees” settlements because the 10 settlement warrants or checks were made payable jointly to the plaintiff and his or her 11 lawyer with no evidence that there was any post-merits settlement payment of any 12 attorney’s fee award made upon any application for statutory attorney’s fees.

13 Of the remaining 41 cases which settled during or after trial or under other 14 circumstances, the tables reflect that there payments of attorney’s fees in at most 21 15 cases,<sup>1</sup> although it appears that on only at most 10 of the cases was there an 16 application for and award of attorney’s fees which the County either paid or 17 compromised.

18 Thus, over ten years, in settling 789 cases, the County paid attorney’s fees in at 19 most 21 cases (2.6%), but has been subject to applications for statutory attorney’s fees
20 in only at most 10 cases (1.3%), and all of those applications and awards were made
21 after verdicts at trial against the County or other judicial defeats of the County. 97.3% 22 of all settlements were “lump-sum, including attorney’s fees” settlements.

23 PRETRIAL SETTLEMENTS

24 Over this ten-year period, the County has settled 748 civil rights cases<sup>2</sup> before

---

26 <sup>1</sup> PP 75-78

27 <sup>2</sup> These cases do not include (a) employment suits by County employees
28 against the County, (b) school student IDEA (20 USC Section 1400) cases, or (c)

1 trial for a total amount of $38,105,799.<sup>3</sup> (Not included in these figures settlement of 2 one set of class action cases for strip searches and over-detention for which 3 documentation is lacking. See P. 78) In none of these cases is there any evidence that 4 there was any application for statutory attorney’s fees, much less any award of such 5 fees. In other words, they were “lump sum, including all attorney’s fees” settlements.

6 POST TRIAL SETTLEMENTS

7 Over this ten-year period, the County has settled 20 civil rights cases after trial
8 for a total amount of $17,273,474.90.<sup>4</sup> In at most 9 of these cases there was a 9 payment of attorney’s fees, although it appears that in only at most 7 of these cases
10 was there an application for and award of attorney’s fees which the County either paid 11 or compromised.

12 OTHER SETTLEMENTS

13 Over this ten year period, the County has settled 21 civil rights cases which do
14 not fit into the above categories for a total amount of $3,338,274.01.<sup>5</sup> In at most 12
15 of these cases there was a payment for attorney’s fees, although it appears that in only 16 at most 3 of these cases was there an application for and award of attorney’s fees
17 which the County paid or compromised.

18 I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States that the 19 foregoing is true and correct and that this declaration is executed on March 25, 2006
20 at Los Angeles, California.

In Peterson v. Co., BC 032847 there was a "$247,000 verdict" compromised by payment 2-1-93 of one warrant for $170,000 payable to the plaintiff and his attorney, Johnnie L. Cochran, Jr.

In Sanchez v. Co., C 757 576, there was a trial and, on Nov. 3, 1993, judgment for plaintiff, represented by attorney Edward A. Torres, in the amount of $349,130. There was an apparent compromise because on November 24, 1993 the County satisfied that judgment by issuing two warrants, one for $242,000 and one for $38,880.

In Buttram v. County, 89-6973-AWT there was a "verdict" for plaintiff which the County "compromised" 3-1-93 by payment of one warrant for $245,000 payable to plaintiff and his attorney, Scott F. Craig.

20 punitive damages."

22 In Moorer v. Co., 92-3267-LGB, there was a four-day jury trial in February 1994 that 23 resulted in an undisclosed verdict for plaintiff followed twenty days later by a 24 settlement that provided for payment of $10,500 to plaintiff and $16,500 to his 25 attorney, Anthony Willoughby.

26
27 In Kraus v. County, (case no. unknown) there was a jury verdict and a court award of 28 attorney's fees and costs which was satisfied 10-12-94 by issuance of a warrant

$213,615.51.

12 A settlement agreement was entered into between the County and, inter alia, Natural Resources Defense Council in the case styled Natural Resources Defense Council v. County, USDC No. 94-5978 which provided plaintiffs with the right to seek costs incurred enforcing compliance with the settlement, including reasonable attorney's fees. By letter dated May 12, 1999, plaintiffs sought reimbursement of $8,595 attorney's fees incurred to enforce the settlement agreement. A compromise was reached whereby the County on January 12, 2000 paid $5000 to Natural Resources Defense Council.

17 In the Scott cases above, the court ordered (presumably pursuant to retainer agreements) payments to attorneys Manes & Watson sums equal to 1/3 and 50% of the amounts paid two of their clients.

20 In Golden v. Co, 97-6140-TJH the jury hung after a three week trial. Ellen H. Ellison was plaintiff's counsel. On 5-12-00 the County settled the case by issuance of a single $275,000 warrant.

22 Valentin v County, C 529 739 involved claims that four plaintiffs were unlawfully arrested and incarcerated for alleged child molestation. The case was tried three times over 16 years. The first trial, which was a bench trial, resulted in a verdict for all four plaintiffs totaling about $3.75 million in compensatory damages and $20,000. That verdict was reversed on appeal for wrongful denial of a jury trial. The second trial – a jury trial – resulted in a verdict for all four plaintiffs of approximately $7.4 million in compensatory damages and $7,000 in punitive damages. The jury awarded approximately $3.7 million to Jose Valentin and Myrna Malave in damages and the court awarded them attorney's fees in excess of $2 million. On appeal, the finding of liability was affirmed, but the award of damages was reversed based on an intervening California Supreme Court case and the case was remanded for a trial on damages and costs. Jose Valentin and Myrna Malave settled with the County for $2 million each, including all costs and attorney's fees, which the County paid Nov. 13, 2000 by

1 warrants payable to “Jose Antonio Valentin and [his attorney] Eduardo M. Madrid”
2 and “Myrna Malve and [her attorney] Robert Roman.” (On October 6, 2000, a jury brought in a verdict of $13.5 million in favor of the two non-settling defendants.)

3 Navarro v County, 90-03679 RMT involved a claim of deputies failing to give 4 domestic violence calls the same priority as other emergency calls. Four deaths
5 ensued. The case was twice dismissed by the district court and twice reversed by the Ninth Circuit. The case settled August 25, 2000 for $450,000 payable to “Claudia
6 navarro, Raymond Navarro, Jr., Denise Navarro, and their attorney of record, Eric 7 Honig.”

The case then settled. On Dec. 13, 2001 the County issued two warrants in payment. One was for $200,000 payable to plaintiff's counsel Yagman & Yagman & Reichmann" (sic) and one was for $75,000 payable to "Yagman & Yagman & Reichmann and Ronnie Hawkins."

At a subsequent mediation, the parties agreed to a total settlement of $9,913,695.70 which the County paid jointly to the plaintiffs and their attorneys May 14, 2001.

26
27 Del Gatto v. County, BC 219 893 was a civil rights action which arose when a

1 mentally ill inmate was handcuffed and placed into the same cell with a gang member
2 who stabbed him. The parties agreed to settle the case for $875,000. On June 25, 3 2001, the County issued two warrants: one for $650,000 payable to “John Del Gatto as guardian for Patrick Del Gatto,” and one for $225,000 payable to “Donald Prichard and Regan Braun Law Offices.”

4 Young v County, 94-4582 involved a claim that deputies failed to protect a jail inmate
5 from a stabbing attack by another inmate. The matter went to trial September 5, 2000
6 and a partial verdict returned. The jury found one deputy liable for damages, two 7 deputies not liable, and could not reach a verdict as to the fourth deputy. Before the trial concluded, a settlement was reached which called for the County to pay plaintiff $30,000 and to pay his attorneys, McDermott, Will & Emery, $17,807.43 for fees and costs. These amounts were paid by separate warrants April 23, 2001.

8 Moses v County, 96-4867 SVW involved a claim that an arrestee was bitten by a 9 police dog and subjected to excessive force after being handcuffed. County’s motion
10 for summary judgment was granted. Plaintiff appealed and the Ninth Circuit affirmed 11 in part and reversed in part. The reversal involved whether the deputy used force after plaintiff was taken into custody. The case settled and on January 26, 2001, the County paid by warrant $5000 payable to “Adam Moses (plaintiff) and the Law Offices of Robert Mann and Donald W. Cook.”

18 On Dec. 23, 2002, the County paid $150,000 in attorney's fees to The Alliance for 19 Children's Rights, a non-profit public interest law firm, and $100,000 in attorney's 20 fees to their co-counsel, Horvitz & Levy. In August 2000 the two law firms applied
21 to Juvenile Court for a blanket order requiring children's social workers to visit foster
22 children monthly in all cases notwithstanding state regulations permitting less 23 frequent visitation. The County opposed but lost, then appealed. The Court of 24 Appeal affirmed and the California Supreme Court denied review. The law firms
25 demanded $450,000 in attorney's fees. The County negotiated the $250,000
26 compromise settlement. This is one of the rare instances when a civil rights case did 27 not settle.

28
29 In Streit v County, 98-09575-WJR, one of the plaintiffs was Michael Roerich.
30 Roerich entered into a settlement agreement with the County in August 2001 which 31 provided, inter alia, for settlement of his claim based on the outcome of a pending cert 32 petition to the U.S. Supreme Court. The settlement agreement also called payment of 33 his reasonable attorney's fees and costs of defending the decision of the Ninth Circuit
34 (Streit v County, 236 F.3d 552 (9th Cir., 2001). Cert was denied (122 S.Ct. 24, 151 35 L.Ed.2d 1). Plaintiff's attorneys made a fee demand of $49,493. The County's 36 lawyers negotiated a 20% reduction of the fee. On Feb. 19, 2002, the County paid 37 $39,595 in attorney fees, $1282.71 in costs, and $20,000 to Michael Roerich.

1 Patricia Gutierrez and Lupita Gutierrez v County, BC 137 155 involved claims of 2 false arrest and improper investigation of citizens complaints. It was tried two times.
3 The first trial mistried. The second resulted in a verdict in favor Patricia for 4 compensatory damages of $600,000 and punitive damages of $500,000. Lupita was 5 awarded $500,000 compensatory and $375,000 punitive damages. After the trial, the 6 court awarded attorneys' fees to Patricia in the amount of $240,000 and to Lupita in 7 the amount of $200,000. Following post-trial motions the court reduced the punitive
8 damages to $10,000 each. The court then issued a remittitur which required plaintiffs 9 to accept the reduced punitive damages or a new trial would be ordered. Patricia 10 accepted the remittitur and judgment in her favor was entered for $850,000. Lupita
11 did not timely accept the remittitur so a new trial was ordered as to her. The County
12 appealed and Lupita cross-appealed seeking to have the entire jury award reinstated.
13 On May 22, 2002 the case settled with the County paying $440,000 to "Lupita 14 Gutierrez and Jorge Gonzalez, attorney at law and M. Irene Daniel, attorney at law," 15 and paying $460,000 to "Patricia Gutierrez and Jorge Gonzalez, attorney at law and 16 M. Irene Daniel, attorney at law."

14 In Suarez v. Baca, 00-03995 AHM, two County deputy sheriffs sued for violation of 15 their civil rights, including their right to associate with and to receive services of a 16 labor union and their right not to be compelled to be witnesses against themselves in a 17 criminal case. The deputies were represented by the law firm of Green & Shinee, a 18 law firm prominent for representing police unions and police officers. The County 19 agreed to a settlement which would pay each deputy a "tax free" $75,000 and would 20 pay Green & Shinee $145,000.

21 In Welch v. County, 02-07345 JFW, the Court approved a minor's compromise of a 22 $95,000 settlement and ordered distribution of funds for the account of plaintiffs,
23 including a $25,000 fee to attorney John Burton.

24 In Lee Baca v. County, BC 246 518, the County's newly elected Sheriff Baca sued the 25 County for various monies and benefits he claimed to be owed. Baca was represented

27 "partial payment of plaintiff's attorney's fees" On 12-11-03, the County paid Mathews
28 & Rager, LLP $32,500.

30 California, the Center for Law and the Public Interest, and Heller, Ehrman, White & 31 McAuliffe sought to represent a class of minor children in the custody of the Los 32 Angeles County Department of Children and Family Services ("DCFS") County
33 Counsel entered into a settlement agreement to improve care for the children that also 34 provided for payment of $525,000 for plaintiff's attorney's fees. On 9-30-03, the 35 County paid the ACLU Foundation of Southern California $525,000.

4 negotiated a compromise of the fee claim and on 9-17-03, paid the attorney $275,000.
