

Social Studies Concept List

adaptation agriculture amendment annexation artifact basic need belief bias biography boundary business calendar capital capitalism cause/effect celebration change checks and balances chronology citizenship civil rights civil war civilization climate colonization command economy commerce common good communication communism community competition compromise conflict conquest conservation constitution	consumption contemporary continent convergence culture custom database democracy depression dictatorship diffusion diplomacy direction discrimination distance distribution divergence domestic policy economic policy economic education election empire environment equality era evidence expansion exploration fascism federal foreign policy frame of reference free enterprise generalization goods/services government	governor growth hazard heritage hero holiday home human immigration imperialism income independence individualism industrialization innovation institution interdependence international interview invention judicial justice labor land landmark law leadership local location main idea Manifest Destiny map market mass production mayor media migration	military modernization modification movement national nationalism natural Nazism opportunity patriotism pattern physical place point of view policy political party political popular sovereignty population president private property production progress prohibition prosperity protest punctuation reconstruction recreation reform regime region religion renaissance representative republic resource	responsibility revolution right rule scarcity sectionalism security separation of powers service settlement slavery society source specialization spelling standard of living state stock market suffrage supply/demand symbol tariff taxation technology time trade tradition transportation trend urbanization validity war
---	--	---	--	---