BREAKING NEWS: REPUBLICAN PARTY HATES GAYS?

The Happy Hour Brings You the Exclusive on the Largest Cover-Up in American History

Lesbians, as brought to you by the Log Cabin Republicans

Last month, the Republican Party of North Carolina revoked permission for the Log Cabin Republicans to table at the NC GOP annual state conference. In a letter to the horrified and surprised gays, NCRP Chairman Ferrell Blount wrote, "homosexuality is not normal and should not be established as an acceptable 'alternative' lifestyle." The letter further informed Log Cabin that, "[t]he North Carolina Republican Party and the Log Cabin Republicans do not seem to share the same agenda."

Shocking news indeed from what has become known in the United States as the Party of fairness and equality for all. Typically, Republican activists of all persuasions are welcomed by the establishment with open arms. Particularly those activists with money. But in a similarly shocking move, the DC State Republican Party recently ousted GOP Convention Delegate and out fag David Catania.

Catania, a "Maverick" as designated by BC04 for his successful efforts to raise a couple hundred thou' for Bush, was booted for publicly stating he would not personally vote for the Republican Party führer.

The Happy Hour will closely follow this breaking news and report on any similar incidents in the future. We rest assured that these situations are isolated, and not representative of overall gay-hating from the Republican party.

HOW TO PLAY

Success Coaches Lily Clark and Jordan Bazinsky, special to the Happy Hour

1. Don't be too available, it's unattractive.
2. Lose the humility- you are the shit.
3. The grass is always greener... aka: make them jealous and remind yourself of your options.
4. "You're dating up:" a directive to your crush.
5. Sex appeal: subtle yet seductive.
6. Don't play dumb; you know what you are doing.
7. When you give it up you don't get much.
8. Everyone likes a good mystery (share selectively).
9. You are whoever the hell you want to be.
10. "In combat one must engage." Aggressive wins...
11. ...but know your limits.
12. Don't want someone who doesn't want you, even if you do.
13. Become European: Latex is a must.
14. Talk not Action: Flirting versus Cheating.
15. Inviting yourself over- GET ON IT!

NATIONAL RIGHT TO LIFE TO DESCEND ON DC

Sinners beware: we're here, were armed, get used to it.

July 1-3, Washington, DC

www.nrlc.org

Enemies of the unborn in the Nation's Capitol, flee. The National Right to Life Committee is holding our annual conference this July 1-3 at the Hyatt Regency in Crystal City Virginia. We will be praying, shooting, bombing, shouting, and annoying freedom-loving peoples throughout the DC area during, and likely before our arrival en masse this July. Our theme this year is, "Infinite Possibilities." We're not exactly sure what that means, or how it relates to domestic terrorism, but it sounds nifty, doesn't it?

Registration is only $115 dollars! Married couples can attend for only $140. But gays stay away – we will not accept any "Boston Marriages." Your legally binding document from Massachusetts holds no weight here among the God-fearing Christians of the religious right. Though we attempt to offer complete childcare services, we are as yet unable to offer childcare to fetuses yet. We are developing a pilot program wherein all pregnant women will be assigned a pen and a holding number. The hotel seemed to balk at providing space for involuntary confinement. Rest assured we will not be returning to the Hyatt. See you in July!

RIP - Point / Counter-Point: CA State Senator William J. "Pete" Knight (R-17)

From Nick at www.morons.org

Ordinarily I wouldn't be pleased about someone dying, but let's face it: Pete Knight was a worthless waste of carbon. The brother of a gay man who died from AIDS, and the father of a gay son, Knight was a rabid anti-gay fanatic who authored California's "Defense of Marriage" act and fought tooth and nail to stop San Francisco's recent efforts to marry gays. Now God has grown tired of Knight, smote him with leukemia and sent him to hell. He will be remembered not as a respected senator, not as a great man, but as a crazed, gay-hating madman who alienated his family. This will forever be his legacy. Knight is survived by... nobody. Nobody will mourn his passing as he reaps what he has sown.

If they go in threes, can we expect James Dobson and Fred Phelps next?

From www.nasa.com

William J. "Pete" Knight, who became the world's fastest man on Oct. 3, 1967, while flying the X-15, died of cancer on May 7.

Knight, then an Air Force major who was part of an elite cadre of hypersonic X-15 pilots, made frontier-busting flights setting aeronautical records that stood unchallenged for years. His record-breaking Mach 6.7 (nearly seven times the speed of sound) flight remains the highest speed ever attained by a manned aircraft. Knight, along with several other X-15 pilots, earned astronaut wings while flying the rocket-powered plane. Knight embodied the "right stuff" that novelist Tom Wolfe wrote of in describing the fearless makeup of early test pilots at Edwards Air Force Base in California's Mojave Desert. The X-15 program, managed by NASA, included service pilots.

Party-Time Roundup: Pro Bowl

Ladies and Gentlemen of all ages (over 21). The Happy Hour is pleased to announce the first annual Pro Bowl. Perhaps you've seen large football players compete in a knock-off event held in Hawaii. Trust us: there will be no football players at the HH Pro Bowl. This competition is for the most inebriated among you, the lushes' lush. Happy Hour staff has carefully screened DC residents and selected only the finest candidates. True connoisseurs of alcohol will gather this July to participate in what will be known as "the biggest blow-out DC has seen since Mondale-Ferraro." Please stay tuned for further details.

Jokes in Poor Form: Richard Nixon

www.washingtonpost.com

President Richard M. Nixon jokingly threatened to drop a nuclear bomb on Capitol Hill in March 1974 as Congress was moving to impeach him over the Watergate scandal, according to transcripts of telephone conversations among his closest aides that were released in May.

The March 20, 1974, exchange is among 20,000 pages of transcripts of telephone conversations that Henry Kissinger deposited in the Library of Congress in 1976 with the stipulation that they remain secret until at least five years after his death.

"He is just unwinding," an aide told Kissinger. "Don't take him too seriously."
