

bakery

a place where foods such as bread and cake are made or sold culture

the things that a group of people do and think and the laws the group lives by customers

person who often buys goods or services

dough

a thick mixture of flour and liquid that is used to make bread and other baked foods.

ingredients

parts that makes up a mixture

recipe

a set of directions for making something,
usually food

