

18 West 22nd St
Huntington Station,
New York 11746

PHONE: 631 241-5036
E-MAIL:
cbrenner@ic.sunysb.edu

Catherine A. Brenner

Objective: To gain experience as a teacher and learn in a working classroom under an experienced teacher.

Education: Stony Brook University, Stony Brook, NY 11794
Expected Graduation May 2004 with BA in English and a BA in History

Related Coursework: EGL 440: Methods of Instruction I grade: A
EGL 449: Field Experience grade: S
SSI 327: Adolescent Development grade: B-
SSI 350: Foundations of Education grade: B-
LIN 344: Literacy Development grade: A
EGL 441: Methods of Instruction II (presently)
EGL 450: Field Experience (presently)
EGL 360: Adolescent Literature (presently)

Skills: Well-rounded in different genres of literature, capable of varying teaching methods including those that use technology and performance.

Work experience: Tutor, SUNY Stony Brook Writing Center, October 2001-Present
Editor of Keeper of Souls a novel by K. Holochwost. Summer 2003
Intern, The Huntington Historical Society, Passport to the Past. 2000-2002
Responsibilities: Paperwork, research, teaching children.

Awards: Bright Lights Scholar, Honors College Scholar

Extracurricular activities: Honors College Big Sib Program, Member of Le Table Ronde (French Club), tutoring elementary and middle school students, volunteering at educational festival with the HHS, and mentoring college-bound high school students.