

Comprehension Questions: Act II Scene iii-iv

1. Think of several (at least three) adjective you might use in describing Friar Laurence. Justify each one.
2. What proposal does Romeo make to the friar?
3. What doubts does the friar have about Romeo's proposal?
4. Why does Friar Laurence finally accept Rome's proposal?
5. What examples of humor (at least three) can you point out in this scene?
6. Everything seems to be going well—except for a certain threat. What is that threat?
7. Who is the Prince of Cats? What does that mean?
8. Outline the steps the nurse is to take when she carries out Romeo's instructions.
9. Identify Paris, to whom the nurse refers to in 2.4.170. What have we learned about him in earlier scenes.
10. Find one simile, pun or oxymoron in Act II scene iv. Explain what it means.

Comprehension Questions: Act II Scene iii-iv

1. Think of several (at least three) adjective you might use in describing Friar Laurence. Justify each one.
2. What proposal does Romeo make to the friar?
3. What doubts does the friar have about Romeo's proposal?
4. Why does Friar Laurence finally accept Rome's proposal?
5. What examples of humor (at least three) can you point out in this scene?
6. Everything seems to be going well—except for a certain threat. What is that threat?
7. Who is the Prince of Cats? What does that mean?
8. Outline the steps the nurse is to take when she carries out Romeo's instructions.
9. Identify Paris, to whom the nurse refers to in 2.4.170. What have we learned about him in earlier scenes.
10. Find one simile, pun or oxymoron in Act II scene iv. Explain what it means.

Comprehension Questions: Act II Scene iii-iv

1. Think of several (at least three) adjective you might use in describing Friar Laurence. Justify each one.
2. What proposal does Romeo make to the friar?
3. What doubts does the friar have about Romeo's proposal?
4. Why does Friar Laurence finally accept Rome's proposal?
5. What examples of humor (at least three) can you point out in this scene?
6. Everything seems to be going well—except for a certain threat. What is that threat?
7. Who is the Prince of Cats? What does that mean?
8. Outline the steps the nurse is to take when she carries out Romeo's instructions.
9. Identify Paris, to whom the nurse refers to in 2.4.170. What have we learned about him in earlier scenes.
10. Find one simile, pun or oxymoron in Act II scene iv. Explain what it means.