

Personal Narrative Assignment

You will be writing an autobiographical story, choosing from one of the two prompts below:

- Although Pandora did break a promise, her punishment seemed to be far greater than her crime. Write a personal narrative exploring a time when your punishment seemed too harsh.

OR

- Arachne boasted about being the greatest weaver. This bragging caused her to get in a lot of trouble. Write a personal narrative exploring a time when your boasting caused you to get in trouble.

This is to be an autobiographical story about an event in your life. It is not an autobiography, but rather a precise story. In order to write a successful story, you should include vivid details, dialogue and follow basic plot structure. Make sure to maintain consistent verb tense. Use the personal narrative writing rubric as a guide for what to focus on when writing your story.

It is worth fifty points in the writing section and will be graded based on the personal narrative writing rubric. You must turn it in at turnitin.com.
