

Act three scene 2 Insults

Shakespeare is celebrated as a master playwright because he really knew how to play with language. Consider his use of insults. What makes them stand out? What makes an insult a good insult? In A Midsummer Night's dream, the characters hurl insults at one another to demonstrate their anger.

1a Make a list of minimum 8 insults in the scene. Write out the complete insult and give the act, Scene, and line number in parentheses.(See 3.2.346-347 as an example)

1b. For each insult, paraphrase it in modern English. What does the insult mean?

2. Invent some Shakespeare sounding insults in your own word.
