

Career Chart

Two-year degree	Four-year degree (bachelor's degree)	More than four-year degree (master's degree or higher)
Computer technician	FBI agent	Lawyer
Surveyor	Engineer	Teacher
Registered nurse	Journalist	Doctor
Dental hygienist	Insurance agent	Architect
Medical lab technician	Pharmacist	University professor
Commercial artist	Computer analyst	Economist
Hotel manager	Dietician	Psychologist
Restaurant manager	Writer	Dentist
Engineering technician	Investment banker	Veterinarian
Automotive mechanic	Graphic designer	Geologist
Administrative assistant	Social worker	Zoologist
Plant operator	Public relations	Management consultant
Heating technician	Accountant	Public policy analyst
Air-conditioning technician
Refrigeration technician

"Most educators and business leaders agree that merely graduating from high school today is not enough to ensure economic success. To get a good job, students need at least a two- or four-year college degree."

(Source: Los Angeles Times)