

Benefits List

Thank you all for taking time out of your busy lives to show your interest in girl scouting. By joining Girl Scouts your daughter will be entering an organization with a tradition of helping girls to become self sufficient, productive members of society.

I have here a list of many of the benefits:

- Stay young by serving the young.
- Share fun times with other girls.
- Meet other great folks.
- Make and eat s'mores.
- Expand your own skills and talents.
- Create memories.
- Promote positive values in youth.
- March in parades.
- Expand your horizon of friends.
- Encourage girls to "Be Their Best."
- Get lots of help.
- Make a difference by helping others.
- Explore in a wide variety of new interests.
- Sleep in museums.
- Develop positive self esteem.
- Extend the sisterhood of Girl Scouting to all girls.
- Grow by trying new things.
- Make new friends.
- Go horseback riding.
- Help girls become well-rounded individuals.
- Model leadership and initiative.
- Get to know your daughter's friends' parents.
- Make a contribution to your community.
- Improve your resume.
- Go beyond your own limitations.
- Build wonderful memories.
- Learn about other cultures.
- Find a haven away from the stress' and demands of every day life.
- Try new things and go new places at a discount.
- Network with others who have similar interests.
- Guide girls into adulthood in a positive manner.
- Learn new skills.
- Live life to the fullest.
- Become known in your school as an active participant.
- Experience the joy of another person's admiration.
- See yourself in a new light.
- Brush up on your organizational skills.
- Learn life skills such as goal setting and budgeting.
- Never miss out on girl scout cookies.
- Enjoy the adventure of seeing someone try something new you showed them.
- Get to know your daughter better.
- Learn good values that will stay with you the rest of your lives.
- Contribute to the well being of someone in your community.
- Sing around a campfire.
- Give back to scouting what was given to you as a girl/boy scout.
- Be offered opportunities that you might not otherwise have.
- Become self sufficient.

Explore and encourage diversity in your community.
Make an impact on other's lives.
HAVE FUN