CODE OF ETHICS FOR ATLANTIC NEWFOUNDLAND DOG CLUB

ETHICS GUIDE – love and respect for the Newfoundland Dog. All members agree to foster the goals set forth in the Ethics Guide-

Responsibilities of Members –

- A) To provide for all dogs in their keeping-
 - a. Physical Requirements of appropriate food, water and shelter, protection from bodily harm and proper health care.
 - b. Emotional requirements of attention and affection and appropriate training as needed.
- B) To abide by the CKC rules applicable to activities in which we engage.
- C) To refuse to sell Newfoundland dogs to any pet shop, or any wholesale dealer in dogs, or knowingly to sell or aid or abet the sale of any Newfoundland to a person or agent who will sell the animal through a pet shop.

Responsibilities of Breeders –

- A) To be familiar with the Standard and to be aware that the purpose of breeding is to maintain or improve the quality of the Newfoundland in accordance with the Standard.
- B) To be familiar with the CKC rules applicable to litter registration and individual registration.
- C) To represent accurately the health history and breeding records of the bitch when negotiating for stud service.
- D) To negotiate all terms of a breeding agreement prior to a breeding. A written contract is recommended.
- E) To produce puppies only when he/she has the time, facilities, and resources to provide attention to proper physical and emotional development.

Responsibilities of the Stud Dog Owner –

- A) To be familiar with the Standard and to be aware that the purpose of breeding is to maintain or improve the quality of the Newfoundland in accordance with the Standard.
- B) To be familiar with the CKC rules applicable to litter registration and individual registration.
- C) To represent accurately the health history and breeding records of the dog.
- D) To negotiate all terms of a breeding agreement prior to a breeding. A written contract is recommended.
- E) To complete the chain of registration by signing and returning the litter registration certificate promptly following all terms of the agreement being completed.

Responsibility of the Seller –

- A) To ascertain that the prospective buyer is aware of the needs of a Newfoundland and has the knowledge and facilities to care properly for a growing or grown dog.
- B) To transfer registration papers to the buyer at the time of sale or to withhold papers only in accordance with CKC rules applying to individual registration, or by written agreement with the buyer.
- C) To advise buyer, or prospective buyer, of a probable delay or difficulty in registration.
- D) To provide the buyer with a Written Bill of Sale to include a description of the dog, the whelping date, the name of the sire and dam and the litter or individual registration number if available.
- E) To advise the buyer of any known health defects.
- F) To advise the buyer (preferably in writing) of any or all health guarantees and compensations offered by the seller.

Advertising

It should be borne in mind that advertising may be read by the persons having little or no knowledge of dogs. Each member is responsible to see that all the advertising in his/her name does not promote his/her Newfoundlands through misleading or exaggerated statements or distortion of fact, or through stated or implied depreciation of the Newfoundlands of others.

Contracts –

Written contracts are strongly recommended for all transactions such as sales, co-ownership, breeding rights agreements, compensation for future puppies, leasing a bitch and stud services.

Discipline –

The following are grounds for disciplinary action:

- A) Neglect or abuse of any Newfoundland in the care of a member documented by an authorized humane organization.
- B) Suspension of privileges by the CKC for violation of its rules.
- C) Advertising found to be in violation of the Ethics Code.
- D) Knowingly to sell or to aid and abet the sale of a Newfoundland to or through a pet shop or its agents.
- E) Refusal to comply with the terms of a written contract involving a Newfoundland without showing just cause.
- F) Refusal to complete the chain of CKC registration without showing just cause.

- G) Refusal to transfer registration papers to a buyer without showing just cause.
- H) Refusal to honor guarantees and agreements made in writing without showing just cause.

Enforcement –

Enforcement of the disciplinary section of the Ethics Code will be handled in accordance with the disciplinary procedures outlined in the by-laws. In the case of any business transactions involving Newfoundlands, the ANDC will refuse to entertain any grievance brought against a member unless a written contract or other document signed by both parties is submitted with the grievance.

I MEET THE REQUIREMENTS OF ATLANTIC NEWFOUNDLAND DOG CLUB BY:

- 1) I agree to abide by the ANDC Code of Ethics which appears above.
- 2) I will accept responsibility for any dogs I have bred which are turned over to rescue. Accepting responsibility entails taking possession of the dog or taking financial responsibility (which includes, but is not limited to boarding, veterinary care, and food costs) for the dog until it is placed in a permanent home.
