Meet Judy Beale:

Judith Beale (Judy) is Music Specialist at Ford Elementary School in Cobb County Schools, GA. She received a B.S. Degree from Geneva College, Beaver Falls, PA in Music Education; Master of Music Education Degree from GA State University, Atlanta; and an Education Specialist Degree in Creative Arts from Lesley University, Boston.

Having completed Orff-Schulwerk Levels I, II, III, Master Class, as well as the AOSA Teaching Training Apprentice Program under Shirley McRae, Judy has taught Level I Movement courses at Memphis State University, Cobb County, the University of Georgia, and Level I at Lee University, Cleveland, TN. She has presented Orff workshops for Lee University, the Atlanta Chapter, the Long Island Chapter, GMEA, and various counties in the Metro Atlanta area. Recently Judy was guest clinician for the 2009 GMEA District 7 Elementary Honor Chorus.

Judy is Vice President of the Atlanta AOSA Chapter. She has served as GMEA Elementary Division State Chair, GMEA District XII Elementary Chair, Assistant Treasurer of the Atlanta AOSA Chapter, and Co-Chair of the Registration Committee for the National AOSA Conference in Birmingham, 2005. Besides teaching, Judy performs with the Georgia Festival Chorus under the direction of Mr. Frank Boggs and plays clarinet with the Sanctuary Orchestra at Mt. Paran North Church of God.

Orff On The Move....

This workshop will “keep you on your toes” and send you home with Monday’s lesson plans. A variety of movement and improvisation activities for all ages will be presented through traditional folk songs, play party songs, children’s literature, and poetry. Be prepared to sing, dance, and play while having fun the Orff way!
