Your Host and Sponsor

The Northern New England Police Accreditation Coalition (NNEPAC) represents law enforcement accreditation interests within the State of New Hampshire, Maine and Vermont. Officially founded in 1989 as the New Hampshire Police Accreditation Coalition, NHPAC has twice voted to expand voting to membership to include law enforcement agencies in the contiguous states of Maine and Vermont. In 1997, NHPAC officially became NNEPAC and now represents over 40 agencies in the tri-state region.

At NNEPAC our goal is simple. We exist solely to serve as an active proponent of law enforcement professionalism and the law enforcement accreditation process. Member agencies benefit from a network of training and support.

The 2010 Conference

The Northern New England Police Accreditation Coalition has been sponsoring quality training conferences in New England for over ten years. Attendance at the conference and networking events will enable your agency's personnel to interact with others who are involved in the accreditation process gaining powerful insight for your agency. In addition, multiple accreditation related tracks are being offered.
