The Maryland Association Of School Resource Officers is a not for profit organization incorporated under section 501 (c) (3). MASRO is made up of School Resource Officers, Police, School Security and Administrators, Probation Officers, and concerned community members. MASRO will serve as a vehicle in which police agencies and school systems in Maryland can combine their resources in order to further develop the school-based policing effort. Additionally, this process will allow MASRO to develop one model for the entire region. That model will be comprised of.
