

When I was a secondary school student, I wanted to get my baccalaureate. So, I asked my parents to leave my village and go to a city where I studied in high school. I just couldn't imagine living far away from home. My first days at the new school were really difficult. I couldn't stop thinking about my family, my friends and my mother's meals. But, day after day, I began to get used to city life. I decided to concentrate more on my studies and quit thinking a lot about my village. My classmates and I spent most of our free time playing football and swimming in the lake. We really enjoyed having fun together.

Exercise: Look at the grammar summary on page 20 and put the verbs in brackets in the infinitive, the gerund or both.

1. My car has started _____ (make) a terrible noise.
2. Sara pretended _____ (not / see) her boyfriend and crossed the street to avoid _____ (meet) him.
3. Moroccan people prefer _____ (spend) Ramadan with their families.
4. I don't like _____ (play) football today. I will phone my friends ask them _____ (excuse) me for not playing.
5. I can't continue _____ (walk) because I feel tired.

When I was a secondary school student, I wanted to get my baccalaureate. So, I asked my parents to leave my village and go to a city where I studied in high school. I just couldn't imagine living far away from home. My first days at the new school were really difficult. I couldn't stop thinking about my family, my friends and my mother's meals. But, day after day, I began to get used to city life. I decided to concentrate more on my studies and quit thinking a lot about my village. My classmates and I spent most of our free time playing football and swimming in the lake. We really enjoyed having fun together.

Exercise: Look at the grammar summary on page 20 and put the verbs in brackets in the infinitive, the gerund or both.

1. My car has started _____ (make) a terrible noise.
2. Sara pretended _____ (not / see) her boyfriend and crossed the street to avoid _____ (meet) him.
3. Moroccan people prefer _____ (spend) Ramadan with their families.
4. I don't like _____ (play) football today. I will phone my friends ask them _____ (excuse) me for not playing.
5. I can't continue _____ (walk) because I feel tired.