Wayne moves into tie for first

Three runs in the first inning and a solid pitching effort from Nick Beecher and Brad Gemberling was all Wayne needed to beat Upper Darby, 5-1, and move into a first-place tie in the Delco League with the Blue Sox.

Keith Hughes broke the game open with a two-run triple. Lou Baldini chased Hughes home with a single.

That was all the offense Beecher and Gemberling would need. Beecher allowed six hits and one run in five inning before turning the game over to the bullpen. Gemberling retired the final six batters to pick up the save.
