

Culbert tosses six-hit shutout

Kevin Culbert's second start of the week turned out a lot better than his first.

Culbert was the losing pitcher for Brookhaven/Loan America in the Delco Senior Babe Ruth playoff championship game Tuesday night.

Saturday, he threw a six-hitter with seven strikeouts as M.C./Burman's blanked Upper Darby, 6-0, and remained one point ahead of Narberth in their battle for the Delco Baseball League's last playoff position.

Culbert, a June graduate of Cardinal O'Hara High, got batting support from Kevin Toler, who had two hits and drove in two runs, and Len Montano, who banged out a two-run double.
