

Cicccone's marathon

pays off for Upper Darby

Dave Cicccone pitched all 10 innings and Matt Livoy came up with the key defensive play and winning hit as Upper Darby defeated Narberth, 3-2, in a Delco Baseball League game Sunday afternoon.

Cicccone, who threw 159 pitches, struck out 10 and gave up one earned run.

Livoy made a diving catch in right field to cut short a Narberth rally in the first inning. In the 10th, Upper Darby's B.J. Hogan got his third hit of the game and came around with the deciding run as Livoy tripled.
