■ Time to Rank

5 years

■ Personal History

Sandy, in her growing up years, lived with her Canadian family in Italy, New Caledonia and Jamaica. Prior to Nikken she worked for many years in the advertising field and then in overseas relocations. Al has 30 years of corporate business experience in surgical sales, corporate training and commercial real estate. They live wonderful lives in Montreal with three adult sons.

■ Why We Joined Nikken

We needed the products and a business opportunity that would give some financial stability and future security. Today we love sharing the 5 Pillars of Health.

■ Advice to Distributors

This is an opportunity to truly get time and money freedom. All you have to do is follow those that have already achieved it. Become a serious student of the business by following the teaching of a few mentors. Keep the business simple and always duplicatable. Always go with an open mind and an open heart to become truly the best you can be.

■ What We See for the Future

The future looks bright in a world where Nikken has been recognized as a global leader teaching people a “Kaizen” approach to the art thanks to Nikken’s RED. We are the change maker and Team Diamond’s mission will be embraced all over the world.
