■ Why We Joined Nikken

After a profound product experience that changed the quality of Lillian's life (Lillian was diagnosed with a chronic, progressive illness in 1990), we wanted to share these phenomenal products with everyone. We are passionate about the products and the opportunity to make a real difference in the lives of thousands of people physically, emotionally, and financially.

■ Advice to Distributors

Be a product of the products—build an unshakable belief system in the areas of self, product, company, and the network marketing industry. Attend Silver training where you will connect your heart to your vision. Master the 3 foot rule: be passionate, compassionate, and sincere. Stay focused and never quit.
