■ Why We Joined Nikken

To give to ourselves and others the gifts of freedom, challenge and adventure, health and wealth; i.e., to make a difference.

■ Advice to Distributors

- (1) Realize the value of what you have to offer.
- (2) Realize that Nikken is a continual process of regularly occurring activities. When the number of people doing the activities consistently is great enough, you have a solid business and will reach the ten levels of Nikken. Buying them is not a solid business.

■ What We See for the Future

The future of our Nikken business is unprecedented. I would hope though, that our image may change from that of the successful network marketers / business people to a more down-to-earth, caring, giving group of people.
