

Health & Safety for Queen's Badge Community Service

The BB needs to ensure that the community service work for your Queen's Badge takes place in a safe environment, especially where this might be done without the supervision of a BB leader. Health and safety in all we do in the BB is of prime importance.

Your Captain, Queen's Badge Adviser or someone from your company will talk to you about your community service and matters of safety for your work. So that your community work can be done in a safe way, please ensure this form is completed prior to commencing your community service. Your Captain or another officer in the company should help you complete this form, which should be kept in your Queen's Badge Record Book. Your Captain also has a checklist to complete.

Queen's Badge Health & Safety Checklist for Community Service Placements

The BB needs to ensure that all of its work with young people takes place safely. This is especially important where young men might be working without the vigilant supervision of a BB officer. The following checklist has been put together to ensure that the community service work required for the Queen's Badge takes place in a safe environment.

The Captain, Queen's Badge Adviser or another nominated company officer should complete this checklist before the community work starts and a copy kept in the company records.

Queen's Badge candidates also have a checklist to work through. This should be completed with your help.
