

Education

- 1996 – 2002      Doctor of Philosophy in Finance
The University of Alabama, U.S.A.
Dissertation: Three Essays on Corporate Dividend Policies
Advisor: James A. Ligon, Ph.D.
- 1993 – 1995      Master of Business Administration
The University of Massachusetts Dartmouth, U.S.A.
- 1989 – 1992      Bachelor of Economics
Chiang Mai University, Thailand

Experience

- Aug 2004 – Present      Lecturer of Finance – College of Management, Mahidol University, Thailand
- Teach graduate-level courses
    - Financial Planning and Control
    - Research Methodology in Finance
  - Advise MM students on their Independent Study
- Apr 2003 – Jul 2004      Lecturer & DBA Program Committee – Graduate School of Commerce, Burapha University, Thailand
- Teach Financial Management to MBA students
  - Advise MBA students on their Independent Study
  - Manage the DBA program

Publications

1. Soranakom, C. (2003). "Exchange-Traded Funds: A Recommended Financial Product for the Stock Exchange of Thailand." Journal of Global Business Review, 4, 1-3.
2. Soranakom, C. (2004). "Analysis of Life Insurance Returns Using the Time Value of Money Principle." Journal of Global Business Review, 5, 6-11.

Conferences

1. "Dividend Signaling in the Credit Market" (a working paper by Soranakom, C., & Ligon, J. A.) was presented at The Financial Management Association Conference in Denver on October 9, 2003.
2. "Dividend Policy, Method of Payment in Acquisitions, and Stock Price Performance" (a working paper by Soranakom, C., & Ligon, J. A.) was presented at The Midwest Finance Association Conference in Chicago on March 18, 2004.