

REGIONAL HORSE MANAGEMENT SEMINAR

MARCH 22 & 23, 2003

CAMP JEWELL YMCA in Colebrook, CT

Camp Jewell YMCA's Hide-A-Way Ranch is a beautiful, new conference facility. The dining hall itself has a breathtaking view overlooking the camp's scenic Triangle Lake. A perfect setting for an awesome Pony Club weekend!

SCHEDULE:

Saturday, March 22

9:00 Registration

10:00-4:30 A variety of exciting, educational, and inspiring sessions will be offered at a broad range of levels. The focus on Saturday will be on everyday horse management. For Ds and Cs, for parents and instructors - there will be something for YOU. Lunch included. For those spending the entire weekend with us, dinner Saturday will be included, and we are planning an exciting evening social event on Saturday evening including ICE CREAM!

Sunday, March 23

For those spending the night, a hearty breakfast will be offered on Sunday at 8:30

9:00-12:00 The weekend continues with presentations related to horse management judging at rallies.

Lunch will be ordered out for those who are staying for the afternoon session.

1:00 -4:30 Regional Instructor's Clinic. This is a required clinic for C3 and up candidates, but is a great benefit to other instructors teaching Pony Clubbers as well.
