The presentation schedule is listed below. Each speaker should talk for about 10 minutes and should provide a handout. Most presentations are taken from G. Hughes, A History of English Words (Oxford, 2000), which is our course book. There is also a separate booklet with further texts and exercises available at the Seminar Library which you must copy before the seminar starts. You are expected to do regular homework with the help of OED on-line (<http://www.oed.com>) throughout the semester, which is subscription-based and therefore only available on the university network, accessible via Virtual Private Network (http://www.uni-muenster.de/ZIV/Content--NetzVN_VPN.html) on your home computer or in the SAC. There is also a webpage at <http://www.traxel.de.ms> containing further details for this course.
