

JUAN PAEZ-FARRELL

paez-farrellj@cf.ac.uk

<http://www.geocities.com/paezfarrell/index.htm>

Office Address

Cardiff Business School
Aberconway Building
Colum Rd
Cardiff CF10 3EU, UK
tel: (+44) 2920 876566
fax: (+44) 2920 874419

Education

Ph.D. in Economics, December 2002. Cardiff University
M. A. in Economics, 1998, Liverpool University
B.A.(Hons) Economics, 1997, Liverpool University

Fields of Specialisation

Macroeconomics, Monetary Economics, Applied Econometrics

Employment History

Sept 2005- Research Associate, Cardiff University
2001-2005 Lecturer in Economics, Hull University
July-August 1998 Consultant, MDS Transmodal, Chester, UK
1998-2001 Undergraduate and Postgraduate Teaching Assistant, Cardiff University
1999 Lecturer, University of Wales Institute Cardiff
1997-1998 Undergraduate Teaching Assistant, University of Liverpool

RESEARCH

Publications in Refereed Journals

“Monetary Policy Rules in Theory and in Practice: Evidence from the UK and the US”, forthcoming, Applied Economics

“Assessing Sticky Price Models Using the Burns and Mitchell Approach”, in press, Applied Economics

“Understanding Monetary Policy in Central European Countries using Taylor-type rules:
the Case of the Visegrad Four”, Economics Bulletin, 2007, Vol. 5 No .3 pp. 1-11, “Output and Inflation in Models of the Business Cycle with Nominal Rigidities: Further Counterfactual Implications”, Scottish Journal of Political Economy, September 2007 pp.

475-491, Vol. 54, no. 4

Submitted to Journals and Work in Progress

“Optimal Monetary Policy Under Inflation Targeting: Is Zero the Optimal Perception of Inflation Inertia?” Under Submission

“Optimal Discretionary Monetary Policy and Parameter Uncertainty”

“On the Effects of Minimum Wages in DSGE Monetary Models”

“Monetary Policy and the Use of Alternative Inflation Measures”

“Estimating an DSGE Model of the US with Bayesian Learning” (with Konstantinos Theodoridis)

“In Praise of Inflation Nutters”

Other Publications

Quarterly Reports on the G7 Economies (published in the Julian Hodge Bank Quarterly Economic Bulletin), 2005-Present

Book Reviews

“Financial Crises and What to Do About Them”. Barry Eichengreen. Oxford: Oxford University Press, 2002; in Journal of Development Studies, 2003, 39 (3) 212-213.

“The Impact of EMU on Europe and The Developing Countries” (Ed.) Charles Wyplosz. Oxford: Oxford University Press, 2001; in Journal of Development Studies, 2002, 38 (3) 173-175.

Conference Presentations

“Optimal Monetary Policy Under Inflation Targeting: Is Zero the Optimal Perception of Inflation Inertia?” Third Dynare Conference, Paris, 2007

“New Keynesian Models and the test of Kydland and Prescott” Money Macro and Finance Research Group 37th Conference, Crete, 2005

“Interest Rate Rules and the Response to the Output Gap” 4th meeting of the European Economics and Finance Society, Portugal, 2005

“New Keynesian Models of the Business Cycle: Some Counterfactual Evidence“ Canadian Economic Association 38th Annual Meeting, Toronto, 2004

“Monetary Policy and Business Cycle Analysis in an Optimising Model with Expectations Lags” ERC/METU International Conference in Economics VII, Ankara, 2003

Seminar Presentations

University of Liverpool, Bank of England, University of Sheffield, Centre for Central Banking Studies, City University and University of Keele.

Awards

Central Bank of Turkey Young Economist Award 2003

1998-2002 Cardiff Business School PhD Scholarship.

Professional Affiliations

Fellow, Euro Area Business Cycle (EABCN) Network

Refereeing

The Economic Journal, Applied Economics and special issues of Journal of Economic Integration

PhD Examining

Internal examiner for Naveed Hassan Naqvi (2003), “The Relationship Between Private and Public Capital and its Impact on Economic Growth: The Case of Pakistan”

TEACHING*Current teaching*

Macroeconomic Theory (Second Year), also module leader

Macroeconomics for PhD students.

Past teaching(undergraduate)

Mathematics for Economists

Microeconomic Theory

Money and Banking

Financial Economics

Economic Policy

Macroeconomics

International Economics

(postgraduate)

The Economic Environment (MBA)