The first system of musical notation for the piano accompaniment. It features a grand staff with a treble clef and a bass clef. The key signature has two flats (B-flat and E-flat), and the time signature is 4/4. The right hand (RH) plays a melody of dotted half notes and quarter notes. The left hand (LH) plays a bass line of quarter notes. A 'Percussion' part is indicated in the bass clef with 'x' marks. The dynamic marking is f (forte).

Cm

The fourth system of musical notation, continuing the piano accompaniment in C minor. The right hand plays a melody of eighth notes and quarter notes, and the left hand plays a steady eighth-note bass line.
