

Name _____ Date _____

Pronouns review

1. Mrs. Smith does not like her students to approach her with a question until they have first tried to figure out the answer on (their, theirs, they, there's) own.
2. Jennifer is a very shallow person who only likes someone if (their, theirs, they, there's) have a lot of money.
3. Since (you, your, yours, you're) leaving tomorrow, we will wash your clothes today.
4. A gray wolf pup calls to (it, its, it's) mother by howling.
5. The living room is hers to clean, not (my, mine, I, me).
6. We never thought (our, ours, we) would do so well at the cheerleading competition.
7. My pancakes were flatter than (her, hers, she).
8. (Whose, Who, Who's) candy is that?
9. I waited to receive a letter from the college to see if they would admit (my, mine, I, me).
10. My older brother likes to inflict pain on (my, mine, I, me).
11. If (our, ours, we) hadn't stumbled, he would have been the fastest dog in the race.
12. Did you find (you, your, yours, you're) skateboard?
13. Yours is the kind of character (my, mine, I, me) hope my children have when they become adults.
14. Every day (my, mine, I, me) go to school in a building.
15. (Whose, Who, Who's) left foot is smaller than his right one?
16. Dad said he would increase my allowance when (my, mine, I, me) turn ten years old.
17. It's (my, mine, I, me) duty to clean my room every day.
18. (Their, Theirs, They, There's) is a television network that I would I never let my children watch.
19. (Her, Hers, She) is following the regimen prescribed by the doctor to improve her health.
20. I saw (her, hers, she) expression and it was not a good one.