

Paul M. Currie
5 Golf Avenue
St. John's, Newfoundland, A1C 5C5
(709) 579-1386 E-mail: paul14currie@hotmail.com

Education

- 1996-present Memorial University of Newfoundland
Faculty of Business Administration
Bachelor of Commerce Co-Op Program
- Attended an International Business Term in Harlow, England
January - April 2000
- June 1996 Prince of Wales Collegiate High School
French Immersion Graduate
Member PWC Career Co-Op Program (Business & Politics)
- July 1994 Department National Defence Royal Canadian Army Cadets
Maple Leaf Exchange to England
(1 of 18 Canadian Cadets chosen to attend leadership course in Frimley Park, England).

Work Experience

- May –
August 2000
(Work Term III) Assistant to Information Products Officer
Co-op Student - Faculty of Business Administration
Industry Canada - Information and Communications Technology Branch
300 Slater St., Ottawa, Ontario
(Responsible for updating electronic information products, including the Virtual Trade Show, <http://vts.ic.gc.ca/ict>, developed a promotional strategy for the Virtual Trade Show, and conducted extensive Internet research for the Wireless Telecommunications and Information and Communications Technologies sectors).
- September 1999 -
present Training Officer
2355 Church Lads Brigade Royal Canadian Army Cadet Squadron
Lieutenant - Department National Defence Army Reserve Component
Harvey Road, St. John's, NF (Responsible for co-ordination of all corps training activities, the evaluation and promotion of cadets, and the general administration, supervision and welfare of 60 cadets and 5 subordinate staff).

- August –
December 1999
(Work Term II)
- Getting the Message Out Field Coordinator*
Co-op Student - Faculty of Business Administration
Department of Development and Rural Renewal
Confederation Building, St. John's, Newfoundland
(Responsible for researching and interviewing Newfoundland and Labrador companies for Department database. Delivered 50-minute multimedia presentations to high school audiences across Newfoundland and Labrador, promoting the business and entrepreneurial capabilities of our province. "Getting the Message Out" is an extensive communications and marketing campaign aimed at creating positive attitudes about the economic opportunities of the Province among the youth of NF and LAB).
- January –
April 1999
(Work Term I)
- Assistant to Information Products Officer*
Co-op Student - Faculty of Business Administration
Industry Canada - Information and Communications Technology Branch
300 Slater St., Ottawa, Ontario
(Responsible for updating electronic information products, including the Software & Services page of Strategis - <http://strategis.ic.gc.ca/software>, developed a new page on Strategis focusing on electronic commerce http://strategis.ic.gc.ca/sc_indps/sectors/engdoc/ecom_hpg.html, conducted extensive Internet research, cold-called companies to obtain company information, handled many requests for information from clients).
- 1998
- Physical Training Coordinator*
Department National Defence RCAC
Argonaut ACSTC, CFB Gagetown, New Brunswick
(Responsible for the administration of physical training activities for a cadet camp of 1200 military personnel). (Summer Employment).
- 1997
- Platoon Commander (Physical Education and Recreation Training)*
Department National Defence RCAC
Vernon ACSTC, Vernon, British Columbia
(Responsible for the training, administration, supervision and welfare of 4 subordinate staff and 23 course cadets). (Summer Employment).
- 1996
- Course Warrant Officer (Physical Education and Recreation Training)*
Department National Defence RCAC
Argonaut ACSTC, CFB Gagetown, New Brunswick
(Responsible for maintaining a high standard of dress, drill and deportment for 7 subordinate staff and 55 course cadets). (Summer Employment).
- 1995-96
- Co-op Student – Prince of Wales Collegiate High School*
Department of Fisheries, Agrifoods and Aquaculture (Fall 1995)
Department of Social Services (Winter 1996)
(Responsible for completing filing, photocopying, drafting news releases, attending and summarizing question period, and assisted with compiling a database for the St. John's Centre constituency.)

Community Involvement

- 1997-1999 Duke Of Edinburgh Awards Program
Volunteer Leader
2355 Church Lads Brigade RCACC
- 1996-1998 Department National Defence RCAC
Volunteer 2355 Church Lads Brigade RCACC
Lieutenant (Former cadet from 1990-1996)
- 1994-1998 Newfoundland and Labrador Special Olympics
Volunteer Floor Hockey and Softball Coach
- 1990-1997 Gower Youth Band
Former Principal Percussionist

Achievements

- 1998 - Received Commission as Canadian Forces Officer (effective June 4th 1998)
- 1996 - Appointed Regimental Sergeant Major 2355 CLB RCACC
- 1995 - Appointed the Master Cadet Award
- 1994 - Candidate Major General Howard Award (Top Cadet Atlantic Canada)
- 1993 - Duke Of Edinburgh Awards Program (Silver Award completed)

Skills

- Computer Software (Windows '95, Microsoft Office '97, Corel WP Suite 6, 7 & 8, Lotus Notes Suite, HTML Transit 2.01, HTML publishing, Adobe Acrobat - PDF, Internet Explorer, Netscape Navigator, and various e-mail programs)
- Language (Fluent in written and spoken French - French Immersion Graduate)

References

Captain Harry Mercer
Commanding Officer
2355 CLB RCACC
St. John's, NF (709) 754-1850 (Bus.)

Ms. Rosalind Patterson
Commerce Officer
Industry Canada - Information and Communications Technology Branch
Ottawa, Ontario (613) 954-3459 (Bus.)

Mr. Dan Puddester
Executive Assistant to the Minister
Department of Intergovernmental Affairs
Confederation Building, P.O. Box 8700
St. John's, NF (709) 729-6823 (Bus.)