

THE HINDU

Online edition of India's National Newspaper

Monday, January 24, 2000

Front Page | National | International | Regional | Opinion | Business | Sport | Entertainment | Miscellaneous | Classified | Employment | Features | Employment | Index | Home

Features | Previous | Next

Peace collages

"GLOBAL PEACE activist V. Balu is back. This time with an exhibition of collages on peace, "done by the artist in meditation".

Involved in propagating peace through creative communication and interaction with people, Balu harps on motivating individuals to relate to their inner peace to bring about world peace. "Global Peace Through Collage Art" at the Vinyasa Art Gallery, Music Academy till January 30, comprises a series of constellations on peace - "Peace Through Meditation", "Inner Peace", "Quest For Peace", "Harmony of Peace", "Peace Energy", "Joy of Peace", "Three Stages Of Peace"...

Good enough to give you a peaceful time.

Send this article to Friends by E-Mail

Section : Features

Previous : Education is just a click away

Next : Millennium concert

Front Page | National | International | Regional | Opinion | Business | Sport | Entertainment | Miscellaneous | Classified | Employment | Features | Employment | Index | Home

Copyright © 2000 The Hindu

Republication or redissemination of the contents of this screen are expressly prohibited without the written consent of The Hindu
