Philippine Weekend Festivities would like to invite you to become a candidate in the 2009 Miss and Mister Philippine Weekend Pageant.

Candidates must meet the following conditions to participate:

- Candidate must be single and must not be married, divorced or have children.
- Candidate must be between the ages of sixteen (before July 11) through nineteen (no later than July 11).
- Candidate must be in good standing of current school.
- Candidate must be Filipino descent.
- Candidate must obtain a sponsorship fee of $300.00 which can be a community service club, family member, or commercial or business sponsor.

Awards will be given in the following categories:

Queen	Cash Prize
King	Cash Prize
Runners-up	Award
Photogenic	Award
Best in Native Costume	Award
Talent	Award
Formal Attire	Award
Congeniality	Award

All candidates must perform the opening number as well as performing a talent of not less than one and a half minutes and no more than two and a half minutes. Your talent must be approved by the pageant committee for appropriateness and you must be prepared to give us an idea of what your talent performance will be at the first practice.

Each candidate is responsible for the cost of their talent outfit, native costume, as well as the cost of their formalwear (which must be Filipiniana attire). The cost of the official attire outfit, the opening number costume, and your official portraits are purchased for you from the sponsorship fee.
