

Phoenix_brigade : COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF'S ADDRESS TO PROMISING EXPLORERS.

Calling Explorers — from this lonely planet To that lonely galaxy ———— journey of dream.....

Attention please.

We are interested people who want to make the journey of dream. For that we need helping hands. Right now, we are building a team of explorers, who will set foot in the gravitational field of that galaxy, still 90% covered with mystery. Whatever astronomers claim, we believe, the galaxy is still covered with mystery, unless human being sets foot on its gravitational field.

So, my friends, I request you to join us. Hurry! Limited space available. We don't require any previous experience, we will train you.

We look forward for a variety of expertises in various disciplines. We value everybody from Propulsion Engineers to Cartographers.

So please fill free to submit your application as early as possible. Bien Viejes!

Captain Wandering Albatross

Commander-in-Chief.
