

NEWSRELEASE

October 9, 2002

For Immediate Release

Media Contact: Christy Wood, Marketing Coordinator - christywood@hotmail.com

SOUTH SOUND PLAYWRIGHTS FESTIVAL NOW ACCEPTING ONE-ACT PLAY SUBMISSIONS

(Tacoma, WA) - Through January 15, 2003, South Sound Playwrights Festival (SSPF) is accepting one-act play submissions for its 2003 season. Playwrights from Pierce, Kitsap, Thurston and South King County (Federal Way, Kent, Des Moines, Auburn, & SeaTac) are eligible to enter.

Two Festival passes will be awarded to playwrights chosen for a reading, and $100 will be given for main stage productions. Main stage playwrights will also be eligible for the Best of Fest & Audience Choice awards, both awards are worth $100. Entry fee is $5 per play. For rules and submission guidelines go to: <http://www.geocities.com/pierceplaywrights>, email SSPFfolks@mixx96.com or call 253-383-1998.

Each summer, SSPF produces one-act scripts submitted by local playwrights. SSPF is a non-profit organization, founded in 1991. It offers opportunities for local playwrights to share their stories, for directors, actors and technicians to develop new works and for audiences to experience the originality and creativity of the talented pool of local theater artists.

###