Reduced Fee Services

Our Plan offers you litigation representation and other legal work within your business state at a 25% discount from the Provider Lawyer's corporate hourly rate.

Reduced Contingency Fee Services

We also offer your business up to a five percent discount from the Provider Lawyer's standard contingency fee for contingency type cases if the Provider Lawyer agrees to accept your case on this basis. Save hundreds, even thousands, with this benefit!

GoSmallBiz.com

Benefits include:

Small Business consultation with small business experts by fax and email. When you need help and cannot find the answer in the GoSmallBiz.com resources, you have a panel of experts to provide direction and advisement on any business issue. You'll be able to submit questions regarding such issues as:

- tax deductions
- financing options
- website promotion
- sales challenges
- computers
- time management
- locating information on the Internet
- motivating employees
- accounting
- management

Questions are submitted by fax and email, researched and responded to, typically, by the following business day. If your question leads our counselors to conclude that you need hands-on business advice, then you may be referred to a retired business executive in your area who will provide free consulting and advice.

Additional Information & Exclusions:

The information contained in this material is for illustrative purposes only and is not a contract. It is intended to provide a general overview of the coverage. Please remember that only the plan contract can give actual terms, coverage, amounts, conditions and exclusions.

If services are required beyond the scope of covered plan benefits, additional services will be rendered at a 25% discount off your Provider Lawyer's corporate hourly rate. In some cases, a retainer fee also may be required.

Contract and Document Review: Nevada residents limited to 5 personal legal documents reviewed per year.

Legal Consultation Services: If the consultation can not be addressed by telephone with maximum of one hour further research, additional services are provided at a 25% discount from the providers standard/corporate hourly rate. Matters for which the Provider Attorney determines are raised an inordinate or unreasonable number of times without substantial change of circumstances are excluded. Also, those matters covered under Benefit III of this contract are not covered under this Benefit. Once it has been determined that the business is entitled to coverage under any other Benefit of the contract, the designated spokesperson will communicate only with the specific lawyer or attorney's handling those matters rather than utilizing coverage under this Benefit for that legal matter. This is to provide the most effective representation for the business.

Legal Correspondence Services: It is within the sole discretion of the Provider Lawyer to determine whether a letter is appropriate in a given situation. Collection letters are specifically excluded from this Benefit, but are available at a 25% discount off your Provider Lawyer's corporate hourly rate.

Trial Defense Services: This benefit does not cover defense of the following: claims or charges relating to workers compensation, inquiries or actions by a government agency, bankruptcy or alcohol, drugs, substance abuse, chemical abuse or dependency; class actions, interventions, or amicus curiae filings or class actions filed in the business is a party or potential party; pre-existing conditions, defined as those acts which give rise to a lawsuit which are alleged to have occurred prior to the business' enrollment, regardless of the filing date of the lawsuit; any claim or defense which in the opinion of Provider Attorney appears to be frivolous or groundless; garnishment, attachment or any other post judgement relief action; the Provider Lawyer will provide services in accordance with the contract up to the final point of judgement by a court of record; any claim or charge where the business has access to an insurance policy.
